Seasonal Touring Pitches

We have a large number of Seasonal Touring Pitches which are extremely popular. We often have a waiting list for them. Our seasonal pitches allow you to enjoy unlimited holidays with the bonus that you won't have to tow your unit each time you want to take a break.

Our touring season runs from mid-March until the end of October with an option for Winter Storage. Prices are available on application and there is a premium for front row/sea view pitches.

Static Caravan Holiday Homes

Owning a static caravan at Penrhyn Bay means that you have the luxury of your own holiday home here on the Welsh coastline. Peaceful, tranquil, with stunning scenery, what better way to escape from it all? Relax and unwind in your very own home from home.

You'll have the flexibility to stay any time during open season from March up until the end of October. All our static caravans are owner occupied and many of our guests have had a holiday home here for generations.

Please note: We do not have static caravans for hire on our park.
